

Corporate Counsel Organization Highlights

Colorado ACCA To Assist Homeless In Volunteer Pro Bono Effort

The Colorado Chapter of the Association of Corporate Counsel America is coordinating legal volunteers for a Project Homeless Connect project.

The event will take place on Friday, October 19 from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Invesco Field in Denver.

The chapter is seeking volunteers willing to make a three-hour commitment to provide information regarding legal services available to homeless individuals.

Volunteers will be asked to attend one two-hour training session, either Friday, October 12 from 3 to 5 p.m. or Monday, October 15 from 8 to 10 a.m. Volunteers will participate in three-hour shifts, either 8:30 to 11:30 a.m. or 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

As with previous Project Homeless Connect events, no prior experience in legal issues relating to the homeless is required.

CO Bar Seminar Will Examine ADR In A Corporate Setting

The Colorado Bar Association (CBA) has scheduled a CLE seminar titled ADR in the Workplace: A View From Inside Corporate America.

The program will take place on Thursday, October 25 from 9 a.m. to 12:55 p.m. at the CLECI Large Classroom, 1900 Grant Street, Denver.

In this program, participants will learn how to implement an ADR program that will help control costs and risks associated with employment related disputes.

Halliburton Assistant General Counsel William L. Bedman is the keynote speaker and will address the success of the ADR that has been used by Halliburton since 1992. The firm has not been party to an employment lawsuit in more than 15 years.

The overall planning chair is Kathryn E. Miller, Littleton Alternative Dispute Resolution, Ltd.
