Corporate Counsel Organization HighlightsNYSB Ethics And Professionalism: Homage To The Late Paul Newman

The Ethics and Professionalism Section of the NYSBA announces a two-part seminar focused on ethics. It will be presented on Tuesday, December 8, at the Holiday Inn Rochester Airport, 911 Brooks Ave.

The first part of the session, The New Rules of Professional Conduct Eight Months Later, will focus on the Appellate Division's adopted new Rules of Professional Conduct, which put New York's disciplinary rules into the model rule format that is used throughout the nation. The new rules contain substantive changes.

The second part of the program – Ethical and Unethical Behavior on the Big Screen, Homage to the late Paul Newman – will focus on ethics and professionalism on the big screen. Participants will view film clips from major motion

The Institute for the Advancement of the American Legal System at the University of Denver (www.du.edu/legalinstitute) is currently conducting a survey to give the business community a voice in the civil litigation rules reform process. If you have received an email from Charles Kolb and Thomas Gottschalk inviting you to take the survey, please do so. A strong response rate is vital to ensuring that decision-makers consider the experiences of businesses.
